All packages include a wedding photograph website (live during the week after the wedding for a 12 month period) The website includes an online secure ordering system, so that friends and family can view the pictures and order prints directly from us if they wish.

As well as the album of your choice, you receive a CD-ROM with a self-running show of all your photographs on it to keep forever, so that no matter how many you choose for your album, you can still see all of your wedding photographs and re-live the memories. (Not printable) Most packages include a printable disk of Hi-Res images

All our packages are flexible to meet your particular requirements. We are always guided by your ideas and don't try to pigeonhole you into standardized ideas. If you don't see what you want here, give us a call and we can almost certainly design a package especially for you at a price that comes within your budget.

We usually attend the brides house or hotel before the wedding, the church or venue and the reception venue, sometimes stopping off somewhere photogenic between church and reception with the bride and groom only.

Evening attendance up to the first dance is standard with most packages (up to 9pm) and we will show a selection of around 100 of the daytime shots on a big LCD screen after the wedding breakfast to entertain the guests.
